Prearranged panels are given priority in the program and received earlier notification of acceptance. Individual papers will also be considered and, if accepted, are arranged into suitable panels by the Program Committee.

Each proposal should include: a maximum 250-word abstract for each paper, a one page curriculum vitae for each participant, and a biographical details for use in the introduction by the chair. All papers should be presented in English (if this is a concern please indicate as much and the committee will take the matter under consideration). Please be thoughtful of A/V requests, while we should have ideal technological facilities, A/V is subject to failure, regardless of location. As always, handouts are welcome. Proposals must be submitted using the forms and guidelines available at www.thewha.org.

Information regarding key dates, registration, accommodations, keynote speakers, optional tours, and all related issues is posted, and regularly updated, on the WHA website: www.thewha.org.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 15, 2014

The World History Association is a community of scholars, teachers, and students who are passionately committed to the study of the history of the human community across regional, cultural, and political boundaries.
